

PEPPERGREEN FARM ARTISAN STUDIO SPACE

- EXPRESSION OF INTEREST -

PepperGreen Farm supports local, national and international artists. As a social enterprise of Access Australia Group, PepperGreen Farm offers hospitality, tourism, micro business skills training, educational demonstrations, wellbeing programs and a weekly Community Market. PepperGreen Farm offers experiences for visitors, tourists, school groups, shoppers and the general public. PepperGreen Farm aims to create opportunities for people of all abilities as it forges strong relationships with the wider community.

PepperGreen Farm invites artisans, artist groups, designers and makers of all kinds to apply for our 2018 program which includes the opportunity to utilise our commercial outlet.

With a glass facade fronting our gardens, PepperGreen Farm artisan studios and gallery are a unique space enabling you to both work and showcase your work. More than just another shop, PepperGreen Farm is an experience.

Artists from all backgrounds and levels of experience are encouraged to apply - senior artists, emerging, mid-career, self-taught, established and academic artists alike.

Through this open call for applications, PepperGreen Farm seeks to:

- foster a community of artists, makers and creative practitioners within a professional museum environment
- encourage vibrant discussion, critical debate and exchange of ideas surrounding contemporary creative culture
- develop exhibitions alongside artists, ensuring that the highest levels of museum practice are encouraged for artists of all experience levels and professional stages
- encourage experimental and ambitious projects
- celebrate a diverse range of exhibition programming with our audience
- provide a platform for the development and presentation of artists and artist's work

By completing the following application, PepperGreen Farm's Programs and Community Participation Officer will be able to decide on the ensure that a diverse range of artisan community members are catered for.
